ACUPUNCTURE DEGREE FOR BOB KOVAL FIRST FOR ANY CANADIAN DOCTOR

Minden physician Dr. Robert J. Koval has become the first doctor in Canada to receive a degree in acupuncture from the Chinese Acupuncture Society. Although qualified as an acupuncturist only a few weeks ago, Dr. Koval already faces a growing list of requests for treatment that currently stands at more than 50 persons.

A graduate in medicine from the University of Ottawa in 1965, Dr. Koval became interested in acupuncture as a possible adjunct to western medical practices when it was first heard of here in Canada two to three years ago. His active study of acupuncture began some six months ago, however, and soon led to an exchange of letters with Dr. Wu Wei-Ping (N.D.), of the Chinese Acupuncture and Cautey Hospital in the city of Taipei, Taiwan, who agreed to accept him as a student.

By mid-winter Dr. Koval and his family were in Taipei where he found himself working a 10-hour day at the hospital, seven days a week and treating a minimum of 150 patients per day. After each days work his evenings were devoted to study and preparation for the next day.

While acupuncture can and is used for anaesthetic or analgesic purposes, Dr. Koval was primarily concerned with its use in the treatment of illness. Basically, it consists of bringing the body's opposing forces, yin and yang, into balance or harmony by utilizing the relationships between the body's various organs.

The nature of the body's imbalance is determined by checking 12 separate pulses, 6 in each wrist. These findings determine treatment and the body is considered back in a stage of health when the 12 pulses return to normal.

The body is divided into 12 main meridians, all interconnected. There are some 365 acupuncture points in the human body.

Dr. Koval plans to begin treating patients locally with acupuncture as soon as possible. Permission must be obtained from the Ontario College of Physicians and Surgeons.

Dr. Koval plans to return to Taiwan later this year for further study.

Bulldogs Wild Bear

Wrestling tame bears in a circus may get all the applause, but for downright excitement, even a little terror, nothing can touch bulldogging a wild bear in the bush, then driving ten miles or so with it riding in the passenger seat of your truck.

That's the opinion of Glamorgan Township grader operator Bradley McDuff and he's got the cuts, bites and scratches to prove it.

Ten days ago he spotted and "took out after" a black bear "swatting frogs" in a pond near Minnicock Lake where the 27-year-old Brad was planning to do a little spare-time logging with friend and foreman Jim Morley. When Bradley was about 40 feet from the bear it took off with Brad in hot pursuit. Overtaking the bear he dropped it with a flying tackle, then bulldogged it into submission.

"I figured to force the bear's front feet up behind its head so it would be helpless", recalled Bradley.

The bear felt otherwise and had sledgehammer-like paws armed with two to three-inch-long claws, all razor sharp, to back him up. Besides it was mad.

The bear clawed him. The bear scratched his hands and arms.

MINDEN PHONE SERVICE CUT OVER 12 HOURS

Telephone service to some 150 Minden homes and businesses was disrupted for more than 12 hours last Thursday when a municipal maintenance crew accidentally cut a Bell Canada telephone cable while repairing a water hydrant outside the Rockcliffe Hotel.

One of the first aware of the situation was Elwood Cox of Deanwood Ezzo Station. Shortly after 9 a.m. the alarm for the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce in Minden, triggered by the cut cable, began ringing in the service station. When Mr. Cox tried to telephone police he found the line dead. He informed a passing representative of The Minden Progress who advised police.

According to Earl Feren, Lindsay and District repair foreman for Bell Canada, some 300 pairs of lines had to be spliced back together before phone service could be resumed. He said that Bell Canada had not been asked to provide a line locator prior to the start of the excavation work.

Minden physician Dr. Robert J. Koval lights candles as a part of his formal induction into the Chinese Acupuncture Society prior to receiving the first acupuncture degree awarded to a Canadian M.D.

HERE AND THERE

by Fenwick Finch

I have a prediction this week — I hope she don't come true, but, I'm afraid there's no hope. The handwriting is on the wall.

I had this here prediction set to go in last week but I run outa space.

The prediction — "Within a very short period of time there will be no Chamber of Commerce building on the By-pass on Highway 35." So, if you'd want to see'er and get yer last look better do it soon for the next time you see it it'll be in the Village of Haliburton.

Every now and then someone comes up with an idea for promoting tourism in Haliburton County. For years the greatest tourist attraction sits right in your lap. The "Clergy House" — but there is a blind spot somewhere because no one does anything about it.

I've promoted this house for 17 years but as far as locally goes the seed has fallen on dead ground. Be that as it may, the place is there, one of a kind, and just waiting to be used if someone had the foresight to see it.

I see they have raised the speed limit on Highway 35 up to 60 m.p.h. However, it's too late fer me — when Constable Telford done his duty as he seen it he hit me where it hurt the most, in the ole pocketbook. However, he learned me somethin' — if there is to be a line of cars don't never be a tail-end-Charlie cause them fellers in blue is just like the Indians used to be — they knock off the "stragglers."

Different times 've been asked why am I so rabid about safety driving? Howcum I always pick on the tourists. I'm rabid on safety, and I don't pick on tourists, our local drivers are just as clueless and I say so.

A long time ago I answered this question, but, I'll answer it again. When I first went into newspaper work, being the green man I was assigned to writing obituaries. This has got to be the damndest job in the world. You have to go into the grieving household, get a history of the deceased, grab a picture if possible. It's bad enough when the people are not known to you but, when you visit a friend's house to get your story it becomes pure Hell.

If any of my readers have had to do this they can appreciate why I push safe driving. I sure hate to have to mention any of my readers and friends being killed in a senseless accident. So, please drive carefully — you may not be concerned about your safety, but, I'm selfish, when anything-like this happens it sure upsets me.

Better throw a little joke in here before she gets too black. I don't know whether I told this before but here she goes. "fellow was in the bar of the Rockcliffe and he sez to the bartender, 'give me another Manhattan — but this time leave out the fruit' "

Standing at the end of the bar was this limp-wristed chap and he lisped, "You silly boy, I didn't ask you to buy me that last drink."

That's it fer now — drive carefully and be around to see if my prediction is right or not — in the meantime, think on this, the Registry office may be next.

his left thigh near the groin. "Finally the bear gave up", said Brad, "so I took off my belt, put it around his neck and, with Jim helping me, hauled him off to the truck."

There, the two men sat the bear on the passenger seat, tying the loose end of the belt to the seat itself. Then, with Brad standing on the running board and Jim driving they headed for Gooderham.

"We were all over the road", said Brad. "That old bear kept taking swipes at Jim with his paws and that sort of took Jim's mind off his driving at times."

According to Brad the bear is a yearling and appeared hungry and in need of help. However, a day or two after the two Gooderham men got the bear to Brad's home it was decided to turn their acquisition over to the Ministry of Natural Resources at Gooderham where it is currently dining regularly on white suckers while under observation for signs of rabies.

Ministry spokesmen say there has been no indication of rabies so far and that they will probably return the bear to the wilds sometime next week.

Still shaking their heads, Ministry officials warn against attempts to catch wild animals such as bears alive, or even touch them, pointing out that it can lead to serious injury, even death.

For Bradley McDuff, this is the last of a long series of bear-wrestling jaunts that stretch back into his teens. And if he wants Jim Morley to go logging with him again that had better be the case.

Get pollution off your chest.

Ontario is a fast-growing province—more people, more vehicles, more factories, more machines every day.

With that growth comes the threat of damage to our environment. Pollution of all kinds.

The Ministry of the Environment is Ontario's guardian of our air and land and water.

Here's who we are and what we do:
Air Pollution.

1. We monitor the air for pollution and order corrections if unacceptable levels occur.

2. We track down strange odours in the air and many things you can't smell and eliminate them if they are dangerous.

3. We investigate suspected air pollution injury to people or property.

4. We are responsible for noise pollution and are creating enforceable noise control measures.

Land Pollution.

1. We deal with all the leftovers of our affluent society—the industrial waste, processed organic wastes, and ordinary garbage.

And regulate its transportation and disposal.

2. We study recycling as an aid to reducing quantities of waste and to avoid depletion of our natural resources.

3. We control the use and application of pesticides which are unacceptable for pollution reasons.

Water Pollution.

1. We protect all of Ontario's water sources from pollution.

2. We develop and control surface and ground water resources.

3. We watch all potential sources of industrial and agricultural water pollution.

4. We plan, build and finance modern sewage and waterworks facilities for Ontario municipalities.

5. We supervise all private waste disposal systems.

Ontario has some of the most comprehensive legislation in North America to protect our environment. But it will take the effort of everyone to solve our pollution problems.

Won't you help?

EDITORIAL

with Bill Foote

Elsewhere on these pages is a news story announcing the demise of the old firecracker. In a way, its rather sad. Certainly, no one seriously questions the necessity of the move. A few ladyfingers popping off were one thing years ago, but with the population densities and noise levels of most communities being what they are today, ladyfingers and the other noisemakers have become a traumatic experience, even for the very healthy. Nevertheless, nearly all of us can recall the thrill and excitement we felt as children on the evening of the "24th". It was an experience composed of both sight and sound, and now most of the sound will be gone.

Oh well, maybe someone has or will capture all the blood-tingling colors, sounds and drama of good old "firecracker day" on film or videotape. Then we can all watch it on TV and adjust the sounds to suit ourselves.

For over 12 hours one day last week much of Minden was without telephone service. The cause, we are told, was an accidental break in a Bell Canada cable caused by excavation work during repairs to a water hydrant outside the Rockcliffe Hotel. Once repairs to the hydrant were completed, telephone repairmen had to painstakingly re-join 300 pairs of severed wires.

There is really no excuse for this inconvenience to the people of Minden, village businesses and Bell Canada. For the past year or two there's been a slogan sweeping Ontario. Its known as "Call Before You Dig" and its been pushed at considerable expense by utilities such as Ma Bell to promote their line locate service supplied free-of-charge to anyone on 24 hours notice, less in an emergency. All it takes is a phone call.

We see by Bill Scott's Ottawa column "The Nation's Business" in this week's Progress that new and stringent gun control legislation will be brought before the house shortly. The private member's bill is expected to ask for the prohibition of rifles and shotguns under a specific barrel length as well as rifles that can be made to fire automatically. It will also seek the restriction of regular hunting weapons by requiring not only registration, but a permit to take a rifle or shotgun from one place to another.

This proposed legislation is ridiculous and dangerous. It won't keep guns out of the hands of criminals and others who would use them against society, but would further, and needlessly, restrict the lives of law-abiding citizens.

We commend Mr. Scott's stand on this whole matter and suggest you make a point of carefully reading his column this week.

PERMIT REQUIRED FOR ALL OPEN BURNING

Ministry of Natural Resources officials at Minden this week reminded farmers, local residents and cottagers that a burning permit must be obtained from either their local fire warden or Ministry office before any open burning may be conducted.

According to Minden District Manager D. D. White the Spring fire season is one of the most critical times of the year for his staff.

"Last year's grass and leaves dry out very quickly, even following a good rain", said Mr. White. "At the same time the winds are normally quite strong. These two can combine to create a sudden, wild fire out of what appeared to be a well-controlled pile of burning leaves or brush", he explained. To ensure a successful Spring clean-up without danger to life or property the Ministry suggests the following safety rules should be obeyed:

1. Never burn during a high wind. Winds over 10 miles per hour can spread a fire rapidly beyond your control. Remember that if the wind is stirring the leaves or dry grass it probably is too strong for safe burning.
2. Burn in the evening. Nearly all wildfire occurs during the hottest part of the day. Normally evening temperatures fall, winds drop to light and the relative humidity rises. All these factors help to create a safe burn.
3. Set your fire in a safe place. Clear a space at least 10 feet outside your pile to be burned. Be particularly careful to rake away dead grass and leaves which spread your fire rapidly.
4. Keep your fire small. Many fires get out of control because the original fire was too large. Small fires also prevent scorching or killing the trees close to your fire.
5. Have help at hand. Be sure that you have your garden hose, leaf rake or other fire fighting equipment at the fire. It never hurts to get an extra neighbour or two to come to help you burn; this is cheap insurance.
6. Light a test fire. Before you touch off the big pile or broadcast fire in the dry grass, light a small patch that you can easily control. If fire spreads rapidly it is likely too dangerous to continue burning; instead wait until later in the day or until it rains.
7. Check your fire the next day. Too many cottages and farm buildings are destroyed by the fire that was supposed to be out. Old stumps, fence rails and dry roots can hold fire for hours or days and can break out after you leave the fire site.

with THE BEAGLE

Dominion Hotel held their first practise on Sunday with a very large turnout. There were nineteen players looking for a spot on the team and another few are expected. Coach Newell put the boys through an hour's workout of hitting and fielding practise. There will be two more practises this week on Tuesday and Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. Anyone interested in trying for the team may come out or contact Gene Newell or Larry Scott.

Stedman Raiders held their first practise on Monday evening. There was a good turnout as there were fifteen players and it looks as if the Juniors will be tough to beat.

They will have another practise on Sunday; contact Neil Burk or Jim Shaw on the time as it is uncertain at this time.

Lets get out and support both these teams as they are working hard to have first rate teams and should have a fight right down to the wire for first place.

These two teams meet in an exhibition game on Monday night and it should give you a good idea on the strength of both clubs.

Registration for Minor Ball will be held Sunday afternoon beginning at 2:00 p.m. We could use some help with these boys so would like to see some of the Dad's at the park as well. All kids wanting to play ball must register. Contact Larry Scott or Jim Shaw.

FOOT NOTES: —

THE NATION'S BUSINESS

by William Scott M.P.

Some time after the Easter recess a Bill will likely be tabled in the House of Commons dealing with the imposition of severe controls over sale and ownership of rifles and shotguns. This Bill was moved by a private member, and it is certain to generate a lot of opposition, especially from hunters, gunclubs and gun collectors.

The Bill would seek to have only two classifications of firearms in the law, prohibited and restricted. Rifles and shotguns under a certain barrel length, and rifles that can be made to fire automatically, would be prohibited. All other guns, such as those used for deer and duck hunting, would be classified as restricted.

All owners of guns would be required to register his or her firearms with the local police station, and a permit would be required whenever a person wanted to carry a gun from one place to the other, such as from home to a hunting club.

This Bill reflects the thinking of people who maintain that strict controls over the sale and ownership of all firearms would keep them out of the hands of criminals. While that sounds like a reasonable approach to the problems of violent crime, unfortunately there is no connection between the two.

In the first place, criminals do not as a rule buy guns from stores, and they would certainly not take them to a Police station and register them if they did buy them. Criminals steal weapons, for the most part, and they don't care where they get them, whether from Police cars, from Police Officers, from armories or wherever else they can be stolen. It has been proven, in other countries such as Ireland, that restricting firearms sales, and forced registration, do not prevent criminals from obtaining weapons.

Ireland has the strictest gun laws in the Western World, and yet hardly a day passes without one or more persons being shot down in the streets of Belfast.

if gun control laws are strict enough, the supply of guns for criminal activities would dry up in a few years, and there would be less of a problem. This has not worked out in other places, and again I would mention Ireland. That country has the most heavily guarded borders in the Western world, yet guns are smuggled into that country on a massive scale. This proposed law is not the answer to the problem of violent crime. It is based on an assumption that is wrong, and cannot do anything but penalize responsible, law-abiding citizens.

The new Bolens QT-16. It's good and quiet. Quiet enough to meet the growing tide of anti-noise ordinances. But don't let the quiet deceive you. This is a powerful twin cylinder 16 horsepower tractor. With the newest power components. Like hydrostatic drive. 4-position hydraulic lift. Electric attachment clutch. And a power locking collar that connects and releases the mower, snowthrower or tiller with fingertip pressure.

The QT-16 has the performance you want for your yard. And the quiet you'll appreciate on your neighbor's yard. So spread the word (quietly). The QT-16 is here. Today. Years ahead of the competition.

est, it has been found that it is virtually impossible to keep guns from people who really want them, and especially from people who should not have them.

It follows, then, that far from solving the problem of keeping guns away from criminals, strict controls only prevent the innocent, responsible citizens from owning weapons, especially sporting weapons. I would be the first to support any law

HEALTH REMINDERS FOR

CANADIAN TRAVELLERS

ABROAD

Traveling abroad? Then follow these simple rules to help minimize health risks and to ensure enjoyable holidays particularly in tropical countries where sanitary conditions sometimes do not reach Canadian standards.

The risk of gastro-intestinal diseases such as diarrhoea and vomiting, food poisoning, dysentery and even typhoid, is very real in some countries.

The rules are:

- (1) Avoid drinking water unless it has been chlorinated.
- (2) Avoid using ice in drinks.
- (3) Avoid salads, certain fruits and other uncooked foods unless they have been washed in chlorinated water. Fruits which require peeling (bananas, oranges etcetera) are safe to eat.
- (4) Some beaches may be polluted with sewage. Check conditions with local authorities. It is always safer to swim in pools where water is chlorinated.
- (5) Most important, check with your doctor or local health department about immunization requirements and other conditions well in advance of travelling.

CANADIAN BIBLE

SOCIETY SUNDAY

The first Sunday in May, May 6, is set aside as Bible Society Sunday by more and more congregations each year.

The fact that the Bible Society is one piece of Christian endeavour where there is co-operation instead of competition has a strong appeal to many Christians.

Sometimes we become tired of 'special' days but the work of the Canadian Bible Society is so basic to the life of every denomination that there is no objection to giving priority to the Translation, Publication and Distribution of the Bible.

In the Minden area recently Rev. A. Brubacher was elected president and Mrs. R. T. Krick, secretary-treasurer. If you have not as yet given to the Canadian Bible Society contributions may be sent to P.O. Box 695, Peterborough or Mrs. R. T. Krick, Box 235, Minden.

ABOUT THE TOWN

with Jeanne Sears

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Allen report having had an enjoyable holiday with their son and his family in Australia.

The last Mini Card Party of this season had a goodly crowd present. Winners were for euchre two highs, Lydia Coulter and Ethel Leigh; for cribbage Anne Dawson and Mary Maidens and for bridge Mrs. Schyler.

Those attending the Regional Workshop at Trenton last Wednesday from Haliburton County included Mary Mackard, Bessie Croft, Carol Madill, Beverly Elliott and Jeanne Sears. The theme was the 300's and book reviews were given by Christina Backhaus, Wendy Brown, Chris Pepler, and B. J. Robinson. Note of interest was that we met a former resident A. R. Capon, who was there taking pictures for his newspaper.

The ladies of the U.C.W. had a very successful Rummage Sale last Friday at the Church Hall with many people getting good used articles.

Belated good wishes to residents at the Hyland Crest celebrating birthdays in April; included are Zilpah Hie, Myrtle Pollard, Margaret Austin and Archibald Sweet.

Last Saturday evening there was a Shower of Wedding Gifts in honour of Miss Barbara Brown of North Bay. The recipient thanked the ladies and all enjoyed a delicious lunch and social time.

Leaving early this week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hearn and family of Tunbridge Wells England were Corinne and Catherine Fleming and Frank Welch.

Sincere good wishes to people in hospitals, included are Mrs. Buzz Godin and Tom Sawyer at St. Josephs Peterborough, and Fred Hewitt who was in Scarboro General Hospital.

Sorry to report the death of Bob Hawkins, son of Eileen Hawkins and the late Bill Hawkins and also Ray Dawson. Sincere sympathy to these families.

The residents of Hyland Crest Senior Citizens Home were entertained on Easter Sunday evening by the Kellett Brothers from Richmond Hill. The violins were accompanied by Mr. Kellett on the piano and Mr. Robert Schroter was happy in joining in with his violin. The Kellett family have had the honour of bringing music to our Highlands for four generations. Past Heritage is strong and everyone enjoyed both music and song from the great grandsons. Sincere thanks are extended for making this the "end of a perfect day."

Note this Thursday, Friday and Saturday there will be the Production by District High School Students of "Merrie England". One item perhaps is not known is that some sixty period costumes were made by some students. This was surely a great project in itself.

Saw many flocks of geese flying north so spring must be here. Some accidents again over the weekend so drive carefully.

Cheerio until next week.

'MERRIE ENGLAND'

PLAYING THIS WEEK

The Glee Club of H. H. S. S. are inviting you to come to "Merrie England". If you have never been there before, you have a truly wonderful treat in store. If you have been there previously, you will still have an opportunity to see many new things and to renew old friendships. You will also enjoy the unique experience of visiting this majestic isle, not in the present, but rather in the golden age of Elizabeth 1 almost 500 years ago. This magical land, with its colourful array of great people, from the famous queen and her royal court to the yeoman and common townsfolk of Windsor, are there for you to meet and enjoy.

The time and place of departure are listed in the "Coming Events" and this is a coming event which you cannot afford to miss. It will be the fifth annual production by our own Glee Club, and certainly the most ambitious extravaganza they have so far attempted. The fact that our Glee Club has also been invited to perform "Merrie England" next Saturday at Lindsay's Academy Theatre is indeed a worthy reflection of the high artistic standard of the pro-
